Description

Available Jan 2022. A one off family house built more than 150 years ago and recently renovated by the owners, who are architects. The renovation respect its Mediterranean essence and charm to the fullest and adds a modern touch. This is a great place to relax and enjoy both in winter with its beautiful mountain views, and in summer due to its proximity to the beach. A little haven situated in the heart of the old town.

The villa is detached with independent access and a plot of 1000m2 that has a covered outdoor porch, two side nayas ... (enquire for further details)
